INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, which have done so much to sustain the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, guiding those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician of skill and humanity combined, a consultation of proper and safe treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble from indiscretion or disease, to the fact that in the course of the past seventeen years in this city, he has had more success than any physician in the Pacific States. Many cases of Nervousness, Debility, Weakness, and all diseases of a private nature, which have baffled the skill of the ignorant pretenders who infest this community, have been cured by the Doctor in a few days, thereby saving much time, suffering and expense. The Doctor feels it a duty he owes to himself to call special attention to the fact that many persons, after having been robbed of their money by unprincipled quacks, and their constitutions ruined by the use of Mercury, Nostrums, etc., have come to the Institute as a last resort, and have been restored to perfect health in a few weeks, at a trifling expense.

Dr. J. C. Young is a graduate of the Medical Department of Dartmouth College, New Hampshire, and has been engaged in the practice of his profession for the last twenty-five years, fifteen of which he has devoted exclusively to the treatment of Chronic Diseases, and the Diseases of Females. His extensive practice, his acknowledged skill, and the unparalleled success which has attended his efforts in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, are sufficient guarantees to the afflicted that they will receive the most careful and scientific treatment that the present state of medical science will admit of.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 5.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In the Senate Mr. Drake offered an amendment to the army bill, providing that Arkansas be admitted on the condition that there be no denial nor abridgement of the right of suffrage, or any other right, except to Indians not taxed. After a miscellaneous discussion, several other amendments having been rejected, Mr. Drake's amendment was adopted. The bill passed 34 to 8 and the Senate then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Senator Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported several communications relative to the exclusive privileges in fisheries in Alaska, and asked their reference to the Committee on Territories. He also stated that the House bill for the protection of naturalized citizens will be considered at the next meeting of the committee.

Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back with amendments the bill for the representation in Congress of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida.

Mr. Sherman called up the supplemental National Currency act and made a lengthy speech in support of its provisions, after which the bill was postponed.

Mr. Edmunds called up the bill providing for appeals to the Court of Claims, which was materially amended. It provides for the appointment of two Assistant Attorney Generals at salaries of $3,000 each, and abolishes the solicitor of Court Claims, etc. The bill was passed after a sharp opposition from Hendricks and Henderson.

In the House a large number of bills and resolutions were introduced. Mr. Morgan read a letter from Miss Vinnie Ream, sculptress, who accepts the room directed to be used as a guard room for Woolery, stating that to remove her model of Lincoln would destroy a whole year's work, and offered a resolution suspending the execution of the resolution directing the room to be vacated. Laid on the table.

Mr. Schenck moved that hereafter the House have evening sessions.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and considered the Internal Revenue bill. Mr. Schenck said if the revenue under that bill for whisky amounted to seventy million dollars, the receipts would exceed the expenditures by forty-three millions dollars.

The bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau was taken up, slightly amended and postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Yates called up the bill to provide a temporary government for the Territory of Wyoming, which was temporarily postponed.

The Deficiency Appropriation bill was then taken up, amended and passed.

The Senate then went into Executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

In the House, Mr. Kelly favored the reduction of the tax on whisky to 50 or even 40 cents. The committee rose, and Mr. Poland, from the special committee on the Washburne Donnelly affair, reported that Washburne had withdrawn all the charges against Donnelly. Adjourned.

Mr. Kelly presented the petition of Henry C. Samples, charging Judge Busteed, of Alabama, with official incompetency and corruption, and praying for an investigation. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Garfield introduced a bill to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department. Referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Upson presented a minority report on the Kentucky election case of McKee against Young. Schofield called up the contested election case of Delano against Morgan—the majority report of that Morgan, the sitting member, is not entitled to the seat. Mr. Kerr made a minority report in favor of Morgan, and occupied two hours and a quarter with arguments in its support. Lawrence followed in support of the contestant. Without having a vote the House adjourned.

Chandler called up the bill to regulate the foreign coasting trade on the northwestern coast. Several amendments were adopted, and the bill passed.

The bill to extend the time for the completion of the Southern Pacific Railroad to California passed.

The bill providing a temporary government for the Territory of Wyoming passed.

In the House, the Ohio contested election case was taken up. After debate the seat was given to Delano by a vote of 108 to 35. He appeared and took the oath.

Woodward offered a resolution that whatever diversities of opinions may prevail relative to the administrative powers of Buchanan, members of the House cordially unite in honoring the purity of his life and character, his ability and patriotism, and requested the Speaker to appoint a Committee to attend his funeral and communicate a copy of this resolution to the relatives of the deceased.

Woodward refused to modify the resolution by omitting the reference to patriotism and ability.

On motion of Farnsworth, the resolution was tabled by a vote of 73 to 46.

In the Senate this afternoon, the time was spent in consideration of the bill for the admission of the Southern States. Adjourned.

In the House, Stevens asked leave to offer a resolution relative to the death of Buchanan. Objected to.

Paine, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back the Senate amendment to the Arkansas bill with a substitute, which simply changes the verbiage of the conditions of admission, without altering the spirit.

Brooks said the majority of the Committee had not authorized the report.

The Speaker said under the rules, whenever it was disputed that a report had been authorized by a Committee, the question of reception must be put to the House. The House refused to receive the report; 55 to 56.

Blaine, by leave, offered a resolution that as a mark of respect to one who had held such an eminent position, the Speaker shall appoint a committee of seven to attend the funeral services of Buchanan. Adopted.

At the evening session the Tax bill was considered in Committee of the Whole.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Senate insisted on amendments to the Arkansas bill, and ordered a Committee of Conference.

Trumbull called up the House bill to admit North Carolina, and explained that in the substitute the Committee had stricken out Alabama and Florida by mistake, and contrary to the opinion of the majority of the Committee, though he personally favored it. A long debate then took place, after which the Senate adjourned.

The Senate to day, passed a bill legalizing all contracts hereafter made for payment in gold.

In the House, Blair, from the Committee of Conference on Navy Appropriation bill, made a report which was agreed to.

Thomas N. Stevens was advanced twenty-one numbers on the list of Captains in the Navy, for services during the war.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Tax bill, the sixth section being under consideration, which gives the Commissioner of Internal Revenue power to appoint and remove all revenue officers, without responsibility to anybody. After a lengthy discussion, several amendments having been offered and rejected, Garfield moved to strike out the section, which was agreed to by 64 to 45. The Seventh Section passed, being slightly amended.

Logan moved to strike out the Eighth Section, which recognizes the landed warehouse system, and provides for the appointment of warehouse storekeepers.

The following nominations were made to-day: Martin McMahon, of New York, Minister resident to Paraguay; W. H. Parker, Secretary of Idaho Territory.

The Senate confirmed H. G. Worthington, of Nevada, as Minister resident to the Argentine Republic. Alfred Ailen, of Kentucky, to be Consul at Foochaw. Com. Thomas Turner to be Rear Admiral, and Capt. J. L. Worden to be Commodore. Rear Admiral Craven is to be detached from the command of the Navy Yard at Mare Island, August 1st, and ordered to the command of the North Pacific Squadron. Com. Jas. Alden has been ordered to command Mare Island Navy Yard.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—In the Senate, Sumner offered a resolution declaring the constitutional responsibility of Senators for their votes on the impeachment question, reciting that,

WHEREAS, Pretensions have been put forth to the effect that the vote of a Senator on impeachment so far differs in character from his vote on any other question, that the people have no right to question it; and,

WHEREAS, Such impressions are calculated to impair the freedom of judgment which belongs to the people on all the acts of their representatives: Therefore, in order to remove all doubts on the question, and to declare the constitutional rights of the people in cases of impeachment,

Resolved, That when assuming that the Senate is a Court in a judicial power, Senators cannot claim their votes to be exempt from the judgment of the people. The resolution instances Taney's Dred Scott decision and its condemnation by the people, and asserts the Senate cannot claim exemption denied the Supreme Court. It declares that the Senate sitting in impeachment is not a Court, but only a Senate exercising certain specific functions provided by the Constitution. That proceedings in impeachment are not proceedings according to law, but purely political, and for political offences to be tried by a political body, and ending in a political judgment, and therefore a Senator's responsibility is the same as on other political questions. Finally, that the special oath is not intended and does not operate to change such character of the Senate, and therefore Senators before and after taking it are equally accountable to the people for their votes.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Specials say Stoneman, now commanding the District of Petersburg, and next officers in rank to Schofield, will be placed in command at Richmond. Rousseau's friends are strongly urging him for the command. Gordon Granger is trying to have Howard sent there, so as to have himself next in command in the Freedman's Bureau.

Seward, on Friday, informed a leading diplomat that he had tendered his resignation. Information from other quarters confirms this.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has reported adversely to the confirmation of Stanbery as Attorney General.

It is said the President will nominate Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England; and Groesbeck Secretary of the Treasury.

The President issued an order to-day, assigning Geo. Stoneman, according to his brevet rank of Major General, to the command of the District of Virginia.

A caucus of the Republican members of the House to-night, after a lengthy discussion, agreed to take no action on the subject of adjournment until it can be seen whether the tax bill can be passed this session.

The Republican Senate caucus agreed to elect an entire new set of officers for the Senate, except the presiding officer.

The Secretary of the Treasury has sent fresh instructions to New Orleans for the detention of the iron clads Oneota and Catawba, it having been stated that they intended to leave there on a professedly experimental trip, but really for Peru.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—J. Ross Browne left Washington yesterday for New York, en route for China. He had a long interview with Burlingame previous to his departure.

In the Senate Geo. C. Gorham was elected Secretary of the Senate without a ballot.

Buckalew announced the death of James Buchanan, whereupon the Senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Burlingame and the Chinese Ambassadors were formally presented to the President to-day. Brief remarks were made by the President and Mr. Burlingame. A large number of ladies and gentlemen witnessed the presentation.

Chase and the Presidency.

NEW YORK, June 3.—A Washington letter to the Herald says Judge Chase recently expressed himself in unison with the Democratic party on every point except that of universal suffrage. If he was elected by that party he would carry out their policy faithfully and labor to make that party one of permanent usefulness; but he does not want the Presidency; is not a candidate for the nomination, and would not assume the office at the sacrifice of his past convictions on general issues. He expressed highly conservative ideas in favor of material Government aid to the Southern States and a general amnesty, and he strongly deprecates the harsh measures of Congress on the finance question.

Funeral Ceremonies of Ex-President Buchanan.

LANCASTER, Penn., June 2.—The funeral of ex-President Buchanan will take place on Thursday afternoon.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 5.—Buchanan's funeral yesterday was the most imposing ceremony ever witnessed in this country. A number of delegations from distant cities were present. About three hundred persons walked in the procession. Business was universally suspended. Buchanan's estate is estimated at $300,000. It is understood he left a legacy for the poor of Lancaster.

Washington City Election.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Democrats claim the election of Given for Mayor, and Councilmen in four wards out of the seven. Two colored members of the Council were elected in the First Ward. The Republicans do not concede the election of Given. Some trouble is probable, occasioned by negroes attempting to prevent a negro voting the Democratic ticket.

The Fenian Movement Coming out in Force to the Convention.

NEW YORK, June 2.—A committee from Cincinnati yesterday engaged the Masonic Hall for the 13th inst., for the accommodation of the Fenian delegation to the Democratic Convention.

The Fenian army is one thousand strong, and will arrive by special train and make an imposing demonstration in the street, headed by a band of forty pieces.

Methodist General Conference.

CHICAGO, June 2.—The Methodist General Conference has nearly closed its labors and will adjourn on Tuesday next. The compromise plan adopted with reference to the lay delegations, allows two lay delegates for each Annual Conference which has more than one ministerial delegate, the lay delegates to be chosen by the electoral conference of lay members from each circuit or station within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The lay delegates must be 25 years of age, and full members of the church for five years. In the month of June, 1869, an election shall be had, in which all members in full connection and over 21 years of age shall be invited to vote for or against a lay delegation. Should a majority be cast for or against a lay delegation, and three-fourths of the Annual Conferences voting thereon be in favor of the proposed change, the next General Conference may, by the requisite two-thirds vote, complete a change, and admit the lay delegates previously elected. This plan was adopted almost unanimously. The following officers were elected for the Pacific Coast: Second Assistant Book Agent at New York, to reside in San Francisco, R. Thomas, now editor of the California Christian Advocate; Henry C. Benson, now editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, Portland, Oregon; Isaac Dillon. [Offices not stated.]

Miscellaneous.

CONCORD, N. H., June 4.—Gov. Harriman was inaugurated to-day. His message was brief, and devoted mainly to local affairs. The State debt had been reduced three and a half millions.

CHICAGO, June 5.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northwestern Railroad yesterday, Henry Keep, of New York, was elected President, Wm. B. Ogden declining a re-election. It is generally believed that an entirely new policy with regard to the management of the road will be adopted. The Pennsylvania Central and Pittsburg, Fort Wayne, and Chicago railways are about to be consolidated.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The Herald's Montreal special says that the Fenian scare throughout the Dominion of Canada is increasing. The authorities augment the general alarm by the extensive preparations making in the city. Several persons have been arrested as Fenian spies.

The Herald's Malone special says that the Fenian fairs will be got up at St. Albans, Vermont, for the purpose of covering up the intention of men for the coming raid into Canada. Large numbers of arms are rapidly arriving from points on the frontier. Prominent Fenians declare that within the coming month they will have large forces on a firm footing in the Dominion.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The Herald's London special says only six natives, not sixty, were drowned by the flood in the Scarce defiles of Abyssinia.
